SOMETIMES LIBERTY AIN'T PRETTY.

YEAH, in a perfect world none of us would ever need to protect our families. We could simply rely on our wonderful and perfect government to defend us and look out for our best interests. Wouldn't that be nice? Some people seem to think this is a perfect world. They think we no longer need our 2nd Amendment right to keep and bear arms. But, like our forefathers who framed the Constitution, we don't buy it...

Please remember we wish to give no anti-gun ammunition to our opponents in the Media. Therefore it is necessary to observe the following guidelines:

No alcohol or firearms are to be brought on Capitol grounds

While Veterans' dress uniforms are certainly appropriate, please refrain from wearing camouflage or overly militaristic clothing.

Please avoid any demonstrations of violence or anything that could be construed as violent fringe behavior by the Media.
